

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY

Cloud Software Group Holdings, Inc. ("Cloud Software Group" or the "Company") is firmly committed to Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and to compliance with all federal, state and local laws that prohibit employment discrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, lactation status, or related medical conditions), gender (including gender identity and gender expression), religion (including religious dress and grooming practices), creed, marital status, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, physical or mental disability, taking or requesting statutorily protected leave, military and veteran status, genetic information, medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), sexual orientation, or any other protected class, characteristic, or consideration made unlawful under applicable laws (each, a "Characteristic"). This policy applies to all employment decisions, actions and practices, including, but not limited to, recruiting, hiring, training, promotions, pay practices, benefits, disciplinary actions and terminations.

Also, as a U.S. government contractor, Cloud Software Group is committed to taking affirmative action to hire and advance individuals with disabilities and veterans, in accordance with the Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Section 503") and Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 (VEVRAA). The Company has developed written Affirmative Action Programs that demonstrate Cloud Software Group's commitment to non-discrimination and affirmative action for individuals with disabilities and veterans. Further, in accordance with its obligations as a federal contractor, Cloud Software Group invites all employees and applicants to voluntarily self-identify their race and gender. Any individual who self-identifies their race or gender will not be subjected to any form of discrimination, harassment or retaliation based on their status or self identification. This self-identification will be kept confidential and used only for purposes authorized by law.

Employees of and applicants to Cloud Software Group will not be subject to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination because they have engaged or may engage in filing a complaint, assisting in a review, investigation, or hearing or have otherwise sought to obtain their legal rights related to any federal, state, or local law regarding EEO.

Cloud Software Group has assigned overall responsibility for the implementation of Equal Employment Opportunity Program to its EEO Officer, Tony Gomes, Chief Legal & Administrative Officer. In addition, Cloud Software Group has established and maintains a reporting system to allow for effective measurement of the Company's programs. Any questions regarding Cloud Software Group's Equal Employment Opportunity policies or Section 503 and VEVRAA related programs should be directed to your supervisor, or Cloud Software Group's EEO Officer or EEO Compliance Manager, Rhea Rodriguez.
